February 3, 1998 LB 695, 777

Wickersham's concern then, it is hard to have one tool fit all applications, and we need to look at everything, so everybody gets a, what you might say, a piece of the pie. It's tough to divide it equally. If we are going to try to make every thing come out exactly where everybody gets a penny here, a penny here, and a penny here, that doesn't happen. So we have to look at the whole state as a whole, and I guess on this issue here, just to say one thing, sometimes you do something because you know it's right, and I know this is right. This is a state function and the state should pay for this. I think we know this and it is just a matter of how you get there. Other measures coming up, we can discuss it, how everybody may share in that so-called pie and I'm looking forward to what Senator Wickersham does come up with. So right now, let's support this measure and thanks a lot for all the effort from everybody.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Thank you, Senator. The question before the body is the advancement of LB 695. All those in favor vote aye; all those opposed vote nay. Please record.

CLERK: 33 ayes, 0 nays, Madam President, on the advancement of LB 695.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: LB 695 advances. As Senator Crosby is excused this morning, we will pass over LB 799 and 799A, and turn to LB 777.

CLERK: (LB) 777 by Senator Jensen. (Read title.) Bill was introduced on January 22 of last year. At that time, it was referred to the Judiciary Committee. The bill was advanced to General File. I do have amendments to the bill, Madam President.

PRESIDENT ROBAK: Chair recognizes Senator Jensen to open on the bill.

SENATOR JENSEN: Thank you, Madam President, members of the body. This came up a little quick here, so we'll start and certainly this is a bill that's very important and will probably require some discussion. I introduced LB 777 primarily because of my concern for marriages and families, and especially for the children of divorce and parents...divorcing parents who may also
